

FACT SHEET – GE IN SINGAPORE

GE (NYSE: GE) is an advanced technology, services and finance company taking on the world's toughest challenges. Dedicated to innovation in energy, health, transportation and infrastructure, GE operates in more than 100 countries and employs about 300,000 people worldwide.

GE traces its beginnings to Thomas A. Edison, who established Edison Electric Light Company in 1878. In 1892, a merger of Edison General Electric Company and Thomson-Houston Electric Company created General Electric Company. GE is the only company listed in the Dow Jones Industrial Index today that was also included in the original index in 1896.

For more information, visit the company's Web site at <http://www.ge.com>. GE is Imagination at Work.

GE in Singapore

GE's relationship with Singapore dates back to 1969 when the company opened a number of electronics manufacturing plants. These were subsequently followed by an aircraft engine maintenance, overhaul, and repair shop that services clients throughout the Asia Pacific basin. Today, GE employs over 3000 people in Singapore, working closely with local partners on key infrastructure projects in the energy, transportation, water and health sectors utilizing cutting-edge, clean, efficient technologies as well as commercial financing capability.

All GE businesses: GE Energy Infrastructure, GE Technology Infrastructure, GE Capital, and GE Home and Business Solutions have presence in Singapore, with a number of them having their regional headquarters in the country.

Ecomagination

Ecomagination is GE's bold commitment to imagine and build innovative solutions that solve today's environmental challenges and benefit customers and society at large. To learn more visit www.ge.com/ecomagination.

Healthymagination

Healthymagination is a new GE business strategy that reflects changing needs and emerging opportunities in healthcare. It is a pledge to work with partners to take on the most pressing challenges in healthcare – cost, quality and access --and help people live healthier lives. Healthymagination is a commitment by GE to invest $6 billion over six years to develop innovations that measurably improve quality, access and cost by up to 15% with a focus on lower-cost technology, more IT, expanding access, and consumer-driven health. Along with ecomagination, it is GE's second growth pillar for taking on tough global challenges. To learn more visit www.ge.com/healthymagination.

John F. Welch Leadership Center

Worldwide, GE invests about $1 billion annually on training and education programs to develop some of the best leaders and some of the most widely practiced business techniques. The centerpiece of its commitment to excellence in leadership development is the John F. Welch Leadership Center at Crotonville, the world's first major corporate business school.

Community

GE Volunteers involves GE employees, and retirees in more than 3,500 projects across 45 countries – “good people, doing great things” – to improve the communities where they live and work. Through active engagement, GE Volunteers in Singapore together with GE Volunteers all over the world, help to make significant impacts in the areas of education, community development, health, and the environment by improving student achievement, bolstering community vitality and supporting environmental stewardship.

GE Foundation, the philanthropic organization of GE, provides grants and invests in initiatives that work to solve some of the world's most difficult problems. In coordination with our partners, GE supports U.S. and international education, developing health globally, the environment, public policy, human rights, disaster relief and community success around the globe.

For more information about our philanthropy efforts, visit www.ge.com/citizenship.com.

Contact

Jessica Blas
GE
Corporate Communications Manager
+632 877 7004
Jessica.blas@ge.com