If the delivery takes place in advance of the due date, title of Goods remains to Supplier and shall pass to Purchaser upon acceptance in writing of the Goods; the acceptance of the Goods shall take place no later than the date originally agreed by the parties. Purchaser insures all Goods for which it accepts risk of loss while such Goods are in transit. Therefore, Seller shall not declare any insurance value on such Goods shipped via Purchaser’s carrier.

(b) Seller shall release truck, air or ship at the lowest released valuation permitted in the governing tariff or classification. Purchaser will pay no charges for unauthorized transportation. i) For all deliveries to be made pursuant to this Agreement, the Parties agree and acknowledge that time is of the essence. In the event Seller for any reason anticipates any difficulty in complying with the required delivery date or any of the other requirements of this Agreement, Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser in writing, and upon request, provide Purchaser adequate assurance of performance.

ii) Any delay that is attributable to the Seller and that Seller does not cure within one (1) week shall result in Purchaser’s right to assess the following as liquidated damages: (A) from the second week to the third of deliveries that are delinquent to the material requirement date (“Delinquency”) the 2% of the price of each Good or Service that is delayed; from the fourth week of Delinquency the 10% of the price of each Good or Service that is delayed; and (B) any amount of liquidated damages Purchaser owes to its customer as a result of Seller’s failure to timely deliver the Goods/Services, and (C) all justified costs (including the travel and living) borne by Purchaser’s employees or any other third party (to travel to Seller’s facility/ies) to help the Seller in solving the Delinquency ((A), (B) and (C) together, “Delivery Damages”). The Parties agree that such Delivery Damages, if assessed are a reasonable pre-estimate of the damages Purchaser will suffer because of delay based on circumstances existing at the time the Order was established; and are to be assessed as liquidated damages for such delay and not as a penalty. Such remedies are not exclusive and shall not be in lieu of any other remedy available at law or under this Agreement.

iii) Further, if Seller is more than thirty (30) days delinquent in delivery, then Purchaser may (1) reduce the market share percentages (if applicable) for the specific delayed Goods until such time as Seller is no longer delinquent and/or (2) consider the delay a material default of this Agreement exclusive of delays resulting from force majeure and delays directly caused by the Purchaser, giving rise to termination rights as set forth in Article 5 of this Agreement. Purchaser’s remedies are cumulative, and Purchaser shall be entitled to pursue any and all remedies available at law or equity (if applicable).

ARTICLE 5 - TERMINATION.

(a) Delay and Default. In the event Seller for any reason anticipates any difficulty in complying with the required delivery date or any of the other requirements of this Agreement, Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser in writing, and upon request, provide Purchaser adequate assurance of performance. In the event of a delivery delay, non-delivery or any other default by Seller in meeting its obligations under this Agreement, Purchaser (without prejudice to other rights it may have in law) may terminate all or any part of this Agreement without further compensation to Seller. For Goods and Services, Purchaser may procure, upon such terms and from any source or service provider as it shall deem appropriate, supplies or services similar to those terminated. In each case Seller shall continue performance of such Agreement to the extent not terminated and shall be liable to Purchaser for any excess costs for Purchaser’s procurement of such similar supplies or services. If Purchaser has made any progress payments under this Agreement, Seller shall refund to Purchaser any such payments immediately upon termination.

(b) Termination for Convenience. Purchaser may terminate all or any part of this Agreement for convenience at any time after notice in writing specifying the extent of termination and the effective date. After receipt of notice of termination, unless otherwise directed by Purchaser, Seller shall immediately: (1) stop work as directed in the notice; (2) place no further subcontracts or orders for materials, services, or facilities, except as necessary to complete the continued portion of the Agreement; and (3) terminate all subcontracts to the extent they relate to work terminated. Seller shall submit a final termination settlement to Purchaser in the form prescribed by Purchaser within ninety (90) days from the effective date of the termination. In the event that Purchaser wrongfully terminates this Agreement under paragraph (a), in whole or in part, such termination becomes a termination for convenience under this paragraph (b).

(c) Termination for Insolvency. If any proceeding under the bankruptcy or insolvency laws is brought against Seller, Purchaser may terminate the Agreement forthwith without liability to the fullest extent permitted by the governing law, except for Goods or Services completed, delivered and accepted within a reasonable period after termination (which will be paid for at the order price).

(d) Termination in force of Legislative Decree n° 159 dated 6 September 2011. In case of Seller’s declaration of compliance to Legislative Decree n° 159 dated 6 September 2011 that might be required by Purchaser results incorrect, Purchaser reserves the right to terminate the Agreement forthwith without any obligation of compensation.

In no event shall Purchaser be liable for lost or anticipated profits, or unabsorbed indirect costs or overhead, or for any sum in excess of the total Agreement price.

ARTICLE 6 - DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

(a) Arbitration. If a dispute arises under or relating to this Agreement in any way, the parties will endeavor to resolve the dispute amicably, including by designating senior managers who will meet and use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any such dispute. If the parties’ senior managers do not resolve the dispute within sixty (60) days of first written request, either party may request that the dispute be settled and finally determined by binding arbitration. The arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the Rules of the Milan Chamber of Arbitration (the Rules) and the seat of the arbitration shall be in Milan, Italy by one arbitrator in case of the total amount in dispute will be equal or lower than US$100,000.00 (or the local currency equivalent), or by three arbitrators in case of the total amount in dispute will be higher than US$100,000.00 (or the local currency equivalent), appointed in accordance with the Rules, which are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. The arbitrator(s) will have no authority to award attorney's fees and related costs or any other damages not measured by the prevailing party’s actual damages, and may not, in any event, make any ruling, finding or award that does not conform to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and applicable law. The award of the arbitrator(s) will be final, binding and not appealable to the greatest extent the law permits, and judgment may be entered thereon in any court of competent jurisdiction. All statements made or materials produced in connection with this dispute resolution process and arbitration are confidential and will not be disclosed to any third party except as required by law or subpoena. Except as specified in paragraph (b) below, the parties intend that the dispute resolution process set forth in this Article will be their exclusive remedy for any dispute arising under or relating to this Agreement or its subject matter. Any claim against Purchaser shall be barred unless Seller has requested that it be resolved by arbitration in accordance with this Article within one year of the dispute, which shall be the effective date of termination if the dispute is related to termination.

(b) Exception. Either party may at any time, without inconsistency with paragraph (a) above, seek from a court of competent jurisdiction any provisional relief to avoid irreparable harm or injury. Paragraph (a) above will not apply to and will not bar litigation regarding claims related to a party’s Proprietary Information or Intellectual Property, nor will paragraph (a) above be construed to modify or displace the ability of the parties to effectuate any termination contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - PURCHASER’S PROPERTY.

(a) Property includes equipment, materials, bailed materials, samples, parts, tooling, tooling drawings and software (“Property”). Purchaser’s Property includes Property furnished to Seller by Purchaser or on behalf of Purchaser or paid for by Purchaser (“Purchaser’s Property”). Purchaser’s Property is the property of Purchaser.

(b) Seller may use Purchaser’s Property for the sole purpose of performing its obligations under this Agreement. Nothing in this article or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be interpreted as being an implied license or a license by estoppel to Intellectual Property Rights in Purchaser’s Property.

(c) Seller shall: plainly mark or otherwise adequately identify Purchaser’s Property as being the property of Purchaser, where practical; safely store Purchaser’s Property apart from other Property; hold Purchaser’s Property at Seller’s risk and insured for replacement cost with loss payable to Purchaser while in Seller’s custody or control; maintain Purchaser’s Property; and upon Purchaser’s written request, remove and deliver

The license granted herein shall supersede any restrictions stated in any Proprietary Information Agreement and shall take precedence over any restrictive or proprietary markings contained on the face of any Goods and/or Services documentation and/or data deliverables pursuant to an Order. To the extent Purchaser discloses Seller Proprietary Information under this paragraph, such disclosure will be subject to the confidentiality terms consistent with those set forth in Article 9(c).

In addition, Seller, will provide reasonable, timely assistance to Purchaser (at Purchaser’s expense) to enable Purchaser to secure Intellectual Property Rights in Foreground Intellectual Property.

iv) When an Order includes line items for Goods and/or Services or an adaption or improvement to existing Goods and/or Services, Intellectual Property relating to such line items shall be considered Foreground Intellectual Property unless Seller establishes by documented evidence that such Intellectual Property was developed wholly outside of the scope of this Agreement, and without use of Purchaser’s funds, Purchaser’s Property, and Purchaser’s Background Intellectual Property.
v) Except as provided by Italian Law No. 633 of Apr. 22, 1941, all Foreground Intellectual Property that is considered “Work Made for Hire” as defined in Section 101 of the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, and used in 17 U.S.C. § 201 (or relevant EU legislation and the UK Copyright, Design and Patents Act 1988, c. 48, as amended), shall be deemed a “work made for hire” under this Agreement, with all right, title and interest in such Foreground Intellectual Property vesting with Purchaser.

vi) Seller will procure from its employees and subcontractors at Seller’s sole expense (including any compensation due Seller’s employees), all Intellectual Property Rights in Foreground Intellectual Property. Further, Seller will secure from Seller’s employees and subcontractors the execution of all patent applications, assignments, and other instruments necessary for procuring Intellectual Property Rights and vesting title in Foreground Intellectual Property for Purchaser.

(c) Government Contracts. If the Goods or Services under this Agreement are being delivered pursuant to a government subcontract that includes retention of ownership of Foreground Intellectual Property by the Seller, provision (b) above shall not apply, and Seller shall retain ownership of such Foreground Intellectual Property ("Seller’s Foreground Intellectual Property"). Seller hereby grants to Purchaser a perpetual (if the governing law does not allow perpetuity, the license shall last at 60 years), irrevocable, fully paid up, worldwide license to use, copy, and make derivative works of Seller’s Foreground Intellectual Property, with the right to sublicense and disclose Seller’s Foreground Intellectual Property to Purchaser’s customers, partners, Affiliates, and contractors in connection with the sale, test, qualification, adaptation, modification, servicing, or repair of Goods and/or Services, including where such Goods and/or Services are incorporated into a higher tier assembly. Purchaser, Purchaser’s customers, suppliers, partners, Affiliates, regulators, auditors, and inspectors shall not use Seller’s Foreground Intellectual Property for the purposes of manufacturing the Goods and/or Services or procuring the Goods and/or Services from sources other than Seller, without Seller’s written approval. The license granted in this Article 8(c) shall supersede use restrictions stated in any Proprietary Information Agreement, provided that to the extent Seller’s Foreground Intellectual Property is considered Seller’s Proprietary Information, such Seller’s Foreground Intellectual Property will be subject to the confidentiality terms of Article 9.

Seller shall protect Purchaser’s Proprietary Information against unauthorized use or disclosure using at least those measures that it takes to protect its own Proprietary Information of a similar nature, but no less than reasonable care. Seller will permit access to Purchaser’s Proprietary Information to only Seller’s personnel who have a need to know for the purpose of performing Seller’s obligations under this Agreement. In the event that Purchaser is required by applicable law or regulation to disclose Seller’s Proprietary Information, Purchaser shall provide Seller with prompt notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity to comment or undertake protective measures prior to such disclosure. Purchaser may disclose only the information that is required by such law or regulation to be disclosed without liability under this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding the restrictions in this Article, Seller may disclose Purchaser’s tooling and tooling drawings to Seller’s sub-contractors for the sole purpose of assisting Seller in performing its obligations under this Agreement, provided that Seller’s sub-contractors agree in writing to obligations of confidentiality at least as restrictive as those set forth in this Agreement for Purchaser’s benefit.

(e) Seller shall be liable to Purchaser for any unauthorized use or disclosure by Seller’s personnel or any third party to which Seller discloses Purchaser’s Proprietary Information.

(f) Supplier shall comply with the “GE Privacy and Data Protection Appendix”, which is incorporated into this Agreement and available at http://www.gesupplier.com/html/GEPolicies.htm.

   i) If any change causes a significant impact on the cost of, or the time required for, performance of any work under this Agreement, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the price or delivery schedule, or both as applicable, in writing. Any Seller claim for adjustment under this article shall be deemed waived unless asserted in writing within twenty (20) days after receipt by Seller of the notice to make the change and may only include reasonable, direct and demonstrable costs that will necessarily be incurred as a direct result of the change.

   ii) Seller shall not proceed to implement any change for which Seller will seek an equitable adjustment until Purchaser provides for such change in writing.

   iii) Nothing in this section, including any disagreement with Purchaser as to the equitable adjustment to be made, shall excuse Seller from proceeding with the change provided that Purchaser pays Seller all undisputed amounts pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing in advance of any and all: (1) changes to the Goods and/or Services, their specifications and/or composition; (2) process changes; (3) plant and/or equipment/tooling changes or moves; (4) transfer of any work hereunder to another site; and/or (5) sub-supplier changes, and no such change shall occur until Purchaser has had the opportunity to conduct such audits, surveys and/or testing necessary to determine the impact of such change on the Goods and/or Services and has approved such change in writing.

   i) Seller shall be responsible for obtaining, completing and submitting proper documentation regarding any and all changes, including complying with any written change procedures issued by Purchaser.

   ii) For Goods that require Purchaser’s source approval, Seller agrees to provide a minimum advance notice of 18 months to Purchaser of any changes to significant processes, including, but not limited to physical ARTICLE 11 - ANTICIPATION OF DELIVERY SCHEDULE.

It is Seller’s responsibility to comply with its scheduled lead times but not to anticipate Purchaser’s requirements. Any material commitments or production arrangements made by Seller in excess of the amount or in advance of the time necessary to meet schedules that are within lead time shall be at Seller’s sole risk and expense. Goods shipped to Purchaser in advance of Purchaser’s requirements may be returned to Seller at Seller’s expense.

ARTICLE 12 - ASSIGNMENT AND CHANGE IN OWNERSHIP.

(a) Assignment. Any assignment or attempt to assign or subcontract Seller’s obligations under this Agreement without the advance written consent of Purchaser shall be null and void and shall give Purchaser the right to terminate this Agreement for default.

(b) Change in Ownership. If a third party submits a solicited or unsolicited offer (whether or not binding or part of a process lead by Seller) to Seller that would result in a Change of Ownership or Control of Seller, as defined below, Seller shall give notice of such offer, including the identity of the offeror, to Purchaser as early as commercially practical following Seller’s receipt of the offer. Before Seller accepts the offer, or enters into definitive documentation with respect to a Change of Ownership or Control, it shall give Purchaser an opportunity, within a reasonable time, to advise Seller of its impact on performance of this Agreement. If the Change in Ownership or Control occurs, Purchaser has the right at its discretion to terminate this Agreement. In the event of such termination, Seller agrees to render full cooperation to Purchaser in order to minimize disruption to the Purchaser’s program. Pending termination or in lieu of termination, Purchaser may require Seller to provide adequate assurance of performance, including, but not limited to the instruction of special controls regarding the protection of Purchaser’s Property, Purchaser’s Background and Foreground Intellectual Property and Proprietary Information.

ARTICLE 13 - QUALITY ASSURANCE, INSPECTION AND TEST

With respect to any products or other materials sold or otherwise transferred to Buyer hereunder, Supplier shall provide all relevant information, including without limitation, safety data sheets in the language and the legally required format of the location to which the products will be shipped and mandated labeling information, required pursuant to applicable requirements such as: (i) the Occupational Safety and Health Act (“OSHA”) regulations codified at 29 CFR 1910.1200; (ii) EU REACH Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006, EU Regulation (EC) No. 1272/2008 classification, labeling and packaging of substances and mixtures (“CLP”), EU Directives 67/548/EEC and 1999/45/EC, as amended, if applicable, and (iii) any other applicable law, rule or regulation or any similar requirements in any other jurisdictions to or through which Buyer informs Supplier the products are likely to be shipped or through which Supplier otherwise has knowledge that shipment will likely occur, such as U.S. Department of Transportation regulations governing the packaging, marking, shipping and documentation of hazardous materials, including hazardous materials specified pursuant to 49 CFR, the International Maritime Organization (“IMO”) and the International Air Transport Association (“IATA”).
Counterfeit Goods. For purposes of this Article, Goods consist of those parts deliverable under this Agreement that are the lowest level of separately identifiable items (e.g., articles, components, goods and assemblies). "Counterfeit Goods" means Goods that have been misrepresented as having been designed and/or produced under an approved system or other acceptable method. Counterfeit Goods include, but are not limited to: (i) Goods that are an illegal or unauthorized copy or substitute of an Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) item; (ii) Goods that do not contain the proper internal or external materials or components or are not manufactured in accordance with the OEM design; (iii) Goods that are used, refurbished, or reclaimed but that Seller represents as being new; (iv) Goods that have not successfully passed all OEM required testing, verification, screening, and quality control but that Seller represents as having met those requirements; (v) Goods with a label or other marking intended, or reasonably likely, to mislead a reasonable person into believing a non-OEM Good is a genuine Good when it is not, and (vi) Goods that are an unauthorized copy or substitute that have been identified, marked, and/or altered by a source other than the item's legally authorized source and has been misrepresented to be an authorized item of the legally authorized source.

i) Seller warrants and certifies that Goods delivered pursuant to this Agreement, unless otherwise specifically stated on the face of the Order, shall (i) be new, (ii) be and only contain materials obtained from the OEM or an authorized OEM reseller or distributor, (iii) not be or contain any Counterfeit Goods, and (iv) contain only authentic, unaltered OEM labels and other markings. Seller shall provide to Purchaser the OEM’s certificate of conformance for any Goods acquired from an authorized OEM reseller or distributor. Goods shall not be acquired from independent distributors or brokers unless specifically authorized in writing by Purchaser.

ii) Seller shall maintain a method of item traceability that ensures tracking of the supply chain back to the manufacturer of all Electrical, Electronic, and Electromechanical (EEE) parts included in assemblies and subassemblies being delivered per this Agreement. This traceability method shall clearly identify the name and location of all of the supply chain intermediaries from the manufacturer to the direct source of the product for Seller, and shall include the manufacturer's batch identification for the item(s) such as date codes, lot codes, serializations, or other batch identifications. When requested by Purchaser, Seller shall provide OEM documentation that authenticates traceability of the affected items to the applicable OEM.

iii) Seller shall immediately notify Purchaser and the GIDEP system if it knows or suspects that it has provided Counterfeit Goods.

iv) In the event Goods delivered under this Agreement constitute Counterfeit Goods, Seller shall at its expense promptly replace such Goods with genuine Goods conforming to the requirements of this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Seller shall be liable for all costs relating to the removal or replacement of Counterfeit Goods, including without limitation Purchaser’s or Purchaser’s customer’s costs of removing such Counterfeit Goods, reinserting genuine Goods, and any testing necessitated by the reinstallation of any Goods after Counterfeit Goods have been exchanged. Purchaser reserves the right to turn over suspected Counterfeit Goods to US and IT Governmental authorities for investigation and reserves the right to withhold payment for the suspect items pending the results of the investigation. The remedies available under this Article are in addition to any other remedies Purchaser may have available to it in law or in any other provisions in this Agreement.

v) This paragraph (f) applies in addition to any other quality provision, specification, or statement of work included in this Agreement addressing the authenticity of Goods and Services. To the extent such provisions conflict with this paragraph (f), this paragraph prevails.

vi) Seller shall flow the requirements of this paragraph 13 (f) to its subcontractors and suppliers at any tier for the performance of this contract.
ARTICLE 14 - NON-CONFORMING GOODS.
