The TM2500 works well for providing a baseload bridge to permanent power installations or for generating backup power in the wake of natural disasters, plant shutdowns, or grid instability. Our complete solutions—includingtrailermounted gas turbine generator set and containerized balance of plant—can put power on the grid within 30 days of the contract signature; this fast power provides the greatest power density among gas turbine trailer-mounted offerings.