

GE imagination at work

Jennifer VanBelle

Senior Vice President, GE & GE Capital Treasurer

Appointed March 2019

Jennifer VanBelle is Senior Vice President and Treasurer of GE and GE Capital. In this role, she is responsible for global funding and liquidity, capital structure, cash management, and treasury services globally.

Jennifer was promoted to GE Senior Vice President in March 2019 and was named Treasurer in January 2018, after spending two years as Capital Markets leader for GE Capital.

From 2012 to 2016 she was Vice President and Chief Risk Officer - Capital Management for GE Capital. In this role she led the capital management organization, focusing on the annual Capital plan, capital management framework for stress testing, regulatory capital, and economic capital.

2007 to 2012, Jennifer was Deputy Treasurer, External Affairs and Capital Management at GE Treasury, where she led the Capital and Liquidity Management efforts for GE Capital and managed the rating agency relationships.

Jennifer joined GE in 1998 and served in a range of risk, capital markets syndication, and securitization roles in GE Capital. She previously spent several years at Chemical Bank and ING in underwriting, risk, and capital markets roles.

Jennifer holds a B.A. degree in Economics from Bates College and an MSc in Finance from the London Business School.