

GE Statement on Milestone Aviation

November 26, 2018

“Milestone Aviation continues to perform well. In fact, GE expects Milestone to be profitable in both 2018 and 2019, and GECAS is expected to earn $1.2 billion this year. Milestone serves a number of industries and its fleet utilization currently stands at approximately 90%. Milestone does not carry a significant order book of helicopters to be built on-spec.”
