

Jennifer VanBelle

Senior Vice President

GE Capital CEO and Treasurer of GE & GE Capital

Jennifer VanBelle is Senior Vice President, GE Capital CEO, and Treasurer of GE and GE Capital. She leads the financial services arm of GE, which is focused on serving customers and markets aligned with GE's industrial businesses. As Treasurer, Jennifer is responsible for global funding and liquidity, capital structure, cash management, and treasury services globally.

She expanded her role as Treasurer to become CEO of GE Capital, effective January 2021. She was promoted to GE Senior Vice President in March 2019 and was named Treasurer in January 2018, after spending two years as Capital Markets leader for GE Capital.

From 2012 to 2016, Jennifer was Chief Risk Officer – Capital Management for GE Capital. In this role she led the capital management organization, focusing on GE Capital's safety and soundness including capital adequacy, stress testing, and the annual Capital plan. Jennifer was Deputy Treasurer at GE Treasury from 2007 to 2012, where she led the rating agency relationships and liquidity management efforts.

Jennifer joined GE in 1998 and served in a range of capital markets and risk management roles in GE Capital. She previously spent several years at Chemical Bank and ING in underwriting and capital markets roles. She holds a B.A. degree in Economics from Bates College and an MSc in Finance from the London Business School.

She is a member of the Advisory Board of GE Women's Network and is also an Executive Sponsor of GE's Disability Advocacy Network (DAN). She also serves on the Boards of Child Guidance Center and buildON.
